

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Rev. U. E. Brown of Ontario has been chosen rector of Grace church at Shelton and will arrive soon.

Raymond, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Reginald of Wallingford, is ill with infantile paralysis.

The bean, corn and apple crops in the vicinity of North Hero are so large that help is short and women are working with the men to gather them.

Mrs. Elvira Stevens, aged 91 years, made the trip from her home in East Hardwick to Boston with her son, Curtis Stevens, in his automobile last week.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Hayward, who have been employed at the industrial school in Vergennes, have resigned their positions. Mr. Hayward has accepted a call from the Winoski Congregational church to act as pastor.

The barn of Clayton Reed in Shaftsbury was struck by lightning Wednesday night and burned to the ground, with five horses, 400 bushels of oats, all the farming tools and a silo. The loss will be $5000, with small insurance.

Rufus Estey, a graduate of the Chester high school, was kicked by a horse which he was leading to water at his home near Springfield Wednesday, the right of one eye being destroyed, his nose broken and many other injuries received.

The intense heat of Thursday is thought to have contracted a door frame in the Putnam house at Bennington to such an extent as to cause the plate glass in it to fall to the floor, as it dropped on the piazza with a crash, when no one was near it or had touched it.

Mitchell Hunt of Sunderland, between 60 and 65 years of age, alighted from the train at Arlington Monday on the wrong side, and stepped in front of a moving freight train. One leg went under the wheels and it was necessary to amputate it at the Troy hospital, where he was taken.

Three blooded heifers on the farm of Antoine S. Vigeant of Bennington were electrocuted during the electric storm Wednesday night, as they were found next morning dead, with their noses resting on a barbed wire fence. It is supposed that the current of electricity ran along the fence.

The home of F. A. Trudo of Leicester Junction was burned to the ground Wednesday. The fire was caused by the explosion of a lantern in the kitchen. Mr. Trudo, in attempting to extinguish the blaze, was badly burned about the hands and arms. He succeeded in arousing the rest of the family, but was unable to save a single article from the house. The property was partly insured.

TWO GREAT REVOLUTIONS.

Are Going On, Asserted Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler to Vermonters.

Addresses were made at the public service building of the Vermont state fair Thursday by Prof. George F. E. Story on the subject, "Feeding the Dairy Cow," followed by E. S. Brigham, commissioner of agriculture, on "Marketing Conditions." At the close of these addresses, after a short intermission, the president of the state fair commission, James H. Estee, in a short speech said that the commission was endeavoring to bring the Vermont state fair to a greater degree of practical good for the farming community and the general public. One method used was to bring before them men of ability who had thought great problems, and would intelligently discuss them, and was glad to introduce as one of those men, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, New York City, an intimate friend of Theodore N. Vail, who had done so much for Vermont.

Dr. Butler rose amid the clapping of hands and after expressing himself as glad to be present and saying he would be brief on account of the excessive heat, believing it to be almost a sin to ask men and women to listen to men talk under such conditions, launched at once upon his theme. In short, he said, we are in the midst of two great revolutions, one domestic and harmless in its degree, the other a revolution of the entire policy of the world.

In the former, all citizens should, and naturally would, express opinions and form judgments, but in these all should endeavor to form these judgments carefully and impartially, for the best good of mankind. Two hundred years from now, the question might be asked, what did the men and women of the 20th century do for the uplifting of others in this far-reaching revolution? In the first revolution was "liberty," in the second "despotism." Efficiency which costs too much is not efficiency, and when it destroys personal liberty the cost is too great. Aug. 1, 1914, saw most of the great nations of the East grasping arms for deadly conflict. Men had thought that the large nations had stood ready till that time to settle their international difficulties before a judicial tribunal, but that day saw such illusion destroyed. If America can maintain leadership in these things that uphold and lead to better citizenship, it may lead in the determination of the results in the great political upheaval now in process, and be the political factor in leading in the policies of government.

Two Kinds.

Not long ago a young married couple came up from the mountains to see London. They arrived very early and went to a restaurant near the station. They visited a tea room and had the place all to themselves.

In serving them the waitress omitted to supply a teaspoon, and the fair young bride whispered the fact to her husband.

Summing the waitress, the young man asked:

"May we have a spoon?"

"Why, certainly," replied the girl; "I am just tidying up, and you can have the whole room to yourself in a minute or two."

DYSPEPSIA ON THE DECLINE.

Seaver's Dyspepsia Tablets Cure Forty-Nine Cases Out of Fifty.

Why anyone in Barre, East Barre or Cabot should continue to suffer with indigestion when a box of SEAEVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS will cure, is certainly a mystery. The Red Cross Pharmacy, Frank Roark, and S. C. Voody & Co., have been selling SEAEVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS for some time, and they know from actual experience in their own stores just what SEAEVER'S FAMOUS DYSPEPSIA TABLETS will do, and if you inquire of the Red Cross Pharmacy, Barre, Frank Roark, East Barre, or S. C. Voody & Co., Cabot, they will tell you they never knew a remedy to prove so decidedly beneficial in the treatment of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation, sleeplessness, and other forms of stomach trouble.

It certainly ought to give you confidence when you know that every 30c box of SEAEVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS contains 20 days' treatment, and at the end of that time if you are not decidedly benefited all you need to do is to go back to the dealer and get your SEAEVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS. SEAEVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS are sold right on their own merits. They cure indigestion simply by toning up the stomach and digestive organs so that the food will assimilate and give strength to the system, just as nature intended. SEAEVER'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS are such a good nerve tonic, too. Just try a box and see if it doesn't give you new energy, new ambition and new courage to carry out your plans and daily work. If it doesn't your money back—Advt.
